Hi John,

Thank you for forwarding the RACT comments.

One of the comments under my product proposal (see below) recommends coordination with OLEM and OCSPP. Do you have any recommendations for partners from these offices that I could reach out to that might be interested in this research?

Thanks,
Amanda

Subject: CSS RED RACT Review Comments on Product Proposals

CSS RED StRAP 4 product proposal contacts,

Please find attached a list of the compiled CSS RED RACT comments for all of the RED product proposals. These comments are in addition to the higher-level RACT comments that are in RAPID; I thought you might find them useful in revising your product proposal. Please let me know if you have any questions or would like any additional information.

John
